(A LETTER TO THE EDITOR)

Dear Mr. McGinley:

The recent attack on loyal Americans by the notorious libertine, Walter Winchell, was no surprise to anyone, since the Christian patriot has long been the target of this professional hate-monger. But it was shocking indeed and beyond the norm of comprehension to hear this purveyor of obscenity quote the Jesuit's National Catholic Weekly Review, America, as the source of his vulgar assault. From "a reporter's report to the nation" on key-hole peeping into the privacy of boudoirs of illicit love nests to reporting the opinions of a Jesuit periodical is quite an accomplishment for a man of Winchell's questionable talents. We might also add that many of the opinions expressed in the America magazine are not above questioning either.

Perhaps a brief sketch of the lives of Ernie Clough and Hugh Brown would be of interest to the readers of COMMON SENSE. This tragic tale of two men, who might have enjoyed brilliant newspaper careers instead of long prison terms, is sordid proof of the fate suffered by those who are innocently led astray by vicious opportunists. In the near future I shall forward to you an article exposing "the magnificent fool" whose only virtue is a lurid past and only talent the heinous assassination of character. My present contention is with my fellow clerics, particularly the clerico-liberals of the editorial staff of the America magazine.

Following Winchell's broadcast, I looked up the November 10th issue of America and with considerable consternation read: "Conde McGinley, publisher of the misleading 'hate sheet,' Common Sense, condemned by the Holy Name Society of nine Catholic parishes in New York City." I would certainly appreciate a list of these Holy Name groups and their respective parishes. It is inconceivable to me that, in this era of global peacelessness when the entire structure of Christian civilization is crumbling in ruins everywhere, Christians would deliberately combat fellow Christians, but a brief review of the history of Christianity will convince the reader that men who called themselves Christians have arrayed themselves on the side of Lucifer and opposed Christ and His followers in every period.

The events of the 16th century which foreshadowed present events, particularly the great apostasy from the Christian faith in preparation for the rise of the last and greatest of all Antichrists, were notably reminiscent of the present era. The Christian rulers of Europe bitterly opposed each other to the sole advantage of Solomon Molcho, a Marrano Jew who professed to be the world's saviour. Hailed throughout Eastern Europe, the Near and Far East, Turkey and elsewhere as the great Messiah by his Jewish, Marano, Morisco, Saracen, Anabaptist, and other followers including vast numbers of Christians, he failed to ascend the throne of a new world order not only because his followers were not successful in their numerous attempts to assassinate Pope Clement VII but also due to the fact that the great apostasy was not at hand. It was only beginning. Molcho's brief career came to an inglorious end when he was captured and burnt at stake by Emperor Charles V of Spain in spite of the protest of Clement VII who acknowledged his long and close friendship for this perfidious Jewish usurper. The events preceding and following the adventures of Solomon Molcho in 1529 are swiftly approaching conclusion in the year 1952 when we will again witness Christians supporting the cause of the Antichrist of this our day. In a remarkably prophetic vein, Father Faber, the great spiritual writer and orator of the 19th century, warned that the foremost feature of the reign of the Antichrist would be the deceitfulness of good men supporting the cause of evil. In his Pentecostal sermon preached in the London Oratory in 1861, Father Faber warned:

"We must remember that if all the manifestly good men were on one side and all the manifestly bad men on the other, there would be no danger to anyone, least of all the elect, being deceived by lying wonders. It is the good men, good once, we must hope good still, who are to do the work of Anti-Christ and so sadly to crucify the Lord afresh . . . Bear in mind this feature of the last days, that this deceitfulness arises from good men being on the wrong side." (From "Devotion To The Church," p. 27).

Mindful of the terrible evils in our midst and perhaps in anticipation of greater ones to follow, in which Christians would bitterly oppose their fellow Christians such as our generation witnessed in Spain, the late Pontiff, Pius XI, expressed his grief at the horrible spectacle of Christians opposing one another to the sole advantage of the destroyers of Christianity. His words, taken from the Encyclical Letter, Divini Redemptoris, are clear and explicit:

"Many times our paternal heart has been saddened by the divergencies—often idle in their causes, always tragic in their consequences—which array in opposing camps the sons of the same Mother Church. Thus it is that the revolutionaries . . . profiting by this discord, are able to make it more acute and end by pitting Catholics one against the other."

St. Augustine described the Church as a Perfect Body of imperfect members and so we find that in every upheaval when thrones were toppled and altars desecrated the imperfect allied themselves with the legions of Lucifer. But the greatest enemies of Christ,

Jewish controlled organizations such as the National Conference of Christians and Jews keep Christians intimidated and quiet through "tolerance" and "brotherly love" campaigns until the revolution is ready. Then the Jews take over the government completely, as in Poland, Latvia, Estonia, Hungary, Czechoslovakia, Rumania and Yugoslavia.

This is a reproduction of large posters in churches in so-called Communist countries which have Jewish rulers. This is the atheist idea of "The Last Supper."

JEWISH ANTI-DEFAMATION LEAGUE USES PRIESTS TO SMEAR ANTI-COMMUNISTS

"It is significant that the Communist Party, more than any other labor group, has been able to achieve successful united fronts with church groups on the most important issues of the day. This is not due to any compromise with religion as such, on our part. In fact, by going among the religious masses, we are for the first time able to bring our anti-religious ideas to them."—From Earl Browder's book, What Is Communism?

From close contact with Protestant ministers of different denominations, we learned the serious extent to which Maxism has gone in paralyzing or neutralizing various Protestant groups—Methodists, Baptists and Episcopalians. The position of Rev. Louie Newman, President of the Southern Baptist Convention, is made quite clear in a booklet which can be purchased at Communist bookstores. Reverend Newman's booklet shows pictures of him while he was touring Russia, photostats taken in Soviet halls with city officials and the caption stating that Reverend Newman was holding religious service. The idea has been to give readers the false belief that practice of the Christian religion in the Soviet Union is allowed. Actually, Christian worship has been wiped out of the U. S. S. R., with the exception of one church in Moscow. That church is for "visitors."

In the Methodist group, Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam is the main wheel for Marxism. Years back the B'nai B'rith financed Bishop Oxnam and directed him in bringing into the Federal Council of Churches of Christ those Protestant groups which could be bought or fooled into believing that they were making a move to strengthen Christianity. Those gullible people do not yet realize that the main faction in back of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ are not Christian, but anti-Christian, Marxist Jews who use money-hungry hypocrites like Oxniam to organize Christian "fronts" to support Marxist moves in the United States.

Today the Federal Council of Churches of Christ (now the National Council) which comprises approximately 27,000,000 people, backs practically everything Marxism and Communism stands for—such as F.E.P. C., United Nations, UNESCO—while disclaiming any association with Communists. New members are constantly being recruited under the Council banner and, as the organization becomes more dominated by the Marxist element, it becomes less Christian. Sad though it may seem, pure Christianity is being abandoned to some "religion" for the laboring man. The new thought appears to be that Christ can go hungry for the love of His children, but the children must have better hours, less labor and more material wealth.

Individual churchgoers being drawn into the Council's net do not know that the organization which is supposed to have no connection with Marxism has been financed through foundations under the direction of leading Jews, the B'nai B'rith or Kuhn, Loeb & Co. Down through the pulpits has come the planted poison until now those regimented to back up Marxist movements, such as the United Nations, Civil Rights legislation, Socialized medicine, and "brotherly love," follow the dictates of their "superiors" almost without thinking.

Most people would ridicule the thought that Communism could bore into the Catholic Church.

The fact is that Judaism (which created Communism and other "isms" as tools in the plot to wreck Christianity and secure world rule for the Jews) has done its most colossal job among Catholic leaders. The Catholic Church, of course, has always been the toughest problem Judaism has had to cope with, as it is the largest Christian body and the only world-wide Christian organization. Hence, the Jews placed their most skillful operators at this task for several hundred years. Unlimited amounts of money have been spent and much patience exercised in doing a job to disrupt or neutralize the Catholic mind.

During the last five years the world has seen how priests who stood firm for Christianity in Yugoslavia, Czechoslovakia, and Hungary, paid with their lives. It is also known that hundreds of others in that same section went over to the Marxists and organized phoney Catholic groups in order to deceive those outside the Iron Curtain into believing that there is religious freedom in Jewish-ruled Communist countries. Lately, some priests and bishops have even taken the oath of loyalty to the Jew rulers in the so-called Communist countries—Hungary, Czechoslovakia, etc.

What will happen in the United States when the New Deal-Fair Deal drops its mask and appears as brutal Communism? Will all Catholic priests stand against it? Or, will many of them take the easier way and ease their conscience by coming out for "modern Catholicism," whatever that is.

Since Roosevelt took over our government twenty years ago and opened the doors of all departments to the Zionist-Jews, our Treasury has been made available to those who would serve the Jewish plans for destroying America and establishing World Government (world slavery). This money has been spent in a clever way, appropriated for hundreds of different purposes mainly with the idea of trapping people into a position where they were happy, and are happy, to serve the New Deal. Today, we witness the spectacle of Catholic priests who will scream that they are against Communism, but they approve practically all of the important Communist moves which are designed to break down and condition people for that final, brutal Communism. They are for Civil Rights, F.E.P.C., "brotherly love," National Council of Christians and Jews, tolerance racket, etc.

The Jesuit weekly magazine, America, has been fast slipping into left gear. Now it has reached the point where that magazine, established to fight for Christ, is being used to smear those who have the intelligence and ambition to study and learn what Communism (Judaism) is, and possess the courage to stand up for Jesus Christ.

Those priests should have learned before now. But, since they have been reckless enough, un-Christian and uncharitable enough, to attack Christian people who have been fighting a gallant battle against the devils who have plotted and pushed the United States into its present on-the-brink-of-Communism position, then those priests have stepped out of their profession as preachers and defenders of Christ. They have joined the Roosevelt-lovers, New Deal-Fair Dealers, and made dupes of themselves. They have taken off their collars and entered a fight about which they know nothing. It is now up to them to defend themselves in the best manner they can.

The Church, or the Jesuits, should have long since appointed a committee of saintly priests, with no political connections, to study the crisis which has been like a black plague pushing its way across the world, so that at least the 28,000,000 Catholics in the United States would not be denied intelligent direction. It was the duty of all Catholic leaders, who have been entrusted with the confidence of millions of Catholics, to intelligently guide them in this darkest period of all United States history.

Instead, in their November 10th issue of the America magazine, the Jesuit priests forgot themselves so completely as to attack the top fighters against Communism. They attempted to smear and belittle men by whom Communism has been fought for over fifteen years; men who have given up their business, put all their money into the fight and spent years at research seeking the root of Communism.

Joe Kamp, a Catholic who has stood for America against all comers for 25 years, is referred to as one of "such creatures."

Major Robert H. Williams, former counter-intelligence officer, an outstanding, fearless American who has opposed the New Deal, is likewise labeled. Conde McGinley is listed as "publisher of the misleading hate sheet." But during the six years Common Sense has been published, neither America nor anyone else has dared to attempt to prove Common Sense was wrong.

Whether publication of the America article was achieved by trickery, fraud, or deceit, the Jesuits connected with it have publicly branded themselves gullible innocents in the battle against Communism. First of all, they based their attack upon the anti-Communists on a three-year-old smear perpetrated by the Jewish Anti-Defamation League, which had one of their mouthpieces—Libonati—condemn many anti-Communists through a Committee of the American Legion in Chicago. Since the original "speech" by Libonati, the Anti-Defamation League (part of the B'nai B'rith, the Jewish Masons) has done all possible to have Libonati's words appear in Christian publications.

With America, the A.D.L. was successful. The New Deal blinded Jesuits published the smear as something "hot off the press," and Walter Winchell (A.D.L. hatchetman) in turn picked up the America editorial as evidence that America, a Catholic publication, condemned Common Sense, and others. Thus, through maneuvering which took THREE YEARS to accomplish, the Anti-Defamation League was able to get a coast-to-coast broadcast of something they would NEVER HAVE DARED to utter in the name of the Anti-Defamation League.

If the Jesuits had looked into the F.B.I. files they would have found that the head of the Anti-Defamation League in New York, the man who wrote A Measure of Freedom, Mr. Forster (real name FASTENBERG), is a former member of a Communist spy ring. If the Jesuits had taken the time to check, they would have discovered that Libonati is one of the Libonati brothers, lawyers in Chicago, who would do anything for a fast buck. They would have learned that the Libonati brothers represent James Belcastro, alias Jimmy the Bomber, a maker and thrower of bombs during the prohibition era.

If the editors of America had looked in Life magazine, November 29, 1948, they would have seen nine pages devoted to Al Capone, Roland Libonati and Charles Fischetti. They would have seen pictures of Roland Libonati with Al Capone, murderer, panderer, bootlegger and convict. One photo shows Libonati with Al Capone and Machine Gun Jack McGurn who, in the Valentine Day slaughter of the Capone era, killed seven people.

Innumerable valiant, anti-Communist Catholics—priests, sister and lay men—who read Common Sense may ask: "But is this not America's only offense?"

Definitely not!

William F. Buckley, Jr., an Army veteran, has just had his first book, God and Man at Yale, published. Presenting an eloquent case against Communist professors in colleges, the book has received favorable mention from many sources, including the New York Daily News, which devoted an entire editorial to praising the accomplishment of this young college man. As a Catholic, Mr. Buckley may have assumed that his efforts against Communism would have full support of America, the Jesuit organ. America ridiculed the book!

Edited by New Deal priests, America has attacked or ridiculed other effective opponents of the New Deal Marxist philosophy. They slur the Chicago Tribune, an outstanding American daily. The December 8th issue of America attacked Westbrook Pegler and defended—of all groups—the Red, Marxist organization calling itself "Americans for Democratic Action." America says Pegler knows nothing about Marxism; it ridicules Pegler for calling David Dubinsky and Walter Reuther "Socialists." We would call Dubinsky and Reuther worse than Socialists; they are Trotskyites.

Common Sense says that the editors of America know NOTHING. PERIOD. If they knew anything at all they would not be consorting with the Jewish Anti-Defamation League, which is the backbone of Marxism in the United States.

We have the declarations of Bulls of over forty Popes forbidding Catholics to associate with Jews, socially or commercially, or entering their employ. Also forbidding Jews to live amongst Christians, or to hold any public office. These Bulls were issued to discourage the tendency of Jews to demoralize the Christians among whom they lived.

Surely, it is high time that the priests responsible for the policy of the New Deal (so-called Catholic weekly) America devoted their time to learning who is behind the crisis fast approaching, which has been prepared for the coming of the Anti-Christ (Jewish Messiah). They should do this, or stay off the subject entirely.

After nineteen years of study on this subject, the writer can state conclusively that Communism, Zionism, "World Government," Socialism and all the other "isms" is Judaism masked to deceive the Gentile and use him (the Gentile) to enslave those who insist on following Christ.

What created Communism, and keeps the fire going, is the hatred of Christianity. Priests and Bishops, who have been such ardent followers of the New Deal-Fair Deal, fail to realize that they are only the deceptive names for Socialism and Communism. As a United States Senator told us a short while ago, "but for this group (Common Sense and other anti-Communists) standing uncompromisingly against the red New Deal, the New Deal would have already dropped its mask and appeared as Communism."

Clergymen are so accustomed to talking that they will not listen. They are afraid to look for the truth and face it. They prefer, instead, the "easy" way—"tolerance" and "brotherhood" promoted by Zionists—and having their pictures taken with groups of Marxists who say they are opposed to Communism.

Common Sense knows that all priests are not blind to the evils in America. One top Jesuit told the editor sometime ago, in the presence of three people, "You will be knocked down by priests, but get up and keep the paper going for you are fighting the battle of Christ."

That saintly man, the late Father Louis Ott, a Jesuit, read Common Sense carefully for five years. He also read many of the books advertised in the paper. Head of the Loyola House of Retreat in Morristown, N. J., for eight years, Father Ott celebrated his 50th Jubilee as a Jesuit. Before he died in May of this year, Father Ott was Treasurer of St. Peter's College, Jersey City, N. J. Father Ott stated at one time that he had always suspected the Jews of being behind Communism, but that he had never fully understood the Communist network until he had heard one of Common Sense's speakers, a former Jew.

It is unfortunate that the Jesuits responsible for America attacked Common Sense before knowing anything about the group, or its work. Composed of Protestants, Catholics and—yes!—a few former Jews, the Common Sense group is always ready to educate any Christian wishing to know the truth and understand Communism. America, before falling into the Anti-Defamation League trap, might have availed itself of such service. The Jesuits of America could have learned that in Hungary alone, with a Catholic population of seven million out of the total population of nine million, the Jewish minority of 7 percent secured control of that nation. How could such a thing happen? The Jews sold Catholic leaders on "tolerance" and "brotherly love"—things entirely foreign to Judaism which is motivated by hate of Christianity.

In short, priests who fly to the defense of the Marxist-minded New Deal remind us of a young farmer in Texas who was called outdoors to watch a gathering storm. The farmer watched the cloud for awhile, then shouted to his wife: "Martha, come here! See? It is plain in the sky—P. C. That is my calling to Preach Christ." Two years later he decided it meant PLOW CORN!

America had better decide what it is going to do. If it is going into the fight against Communism, it must first learn what it is doing so it will know what side it is on.

Don't go shooting down your own soldiers!

—Conde McGinley

Priest Speaks

the real 5th Column of the warriors of hell, are those cowardly Catholics who are neither with Him nor against Him. It is from these contemptible souls that Lucifer draws his greatest strength. This was clearly pointed out by the saintly Pontiff, Pius X, now a Beatus of the Church, on the occasion of the Beatification of Joan of Arc. Contrasting the heroism of the little peasant with the cowardice of modern Catholics, Pius X said:

"In our time more than ever before, the chief strength of the wicked lies in the cowardice of good men. . . . All the strength of Satan's reign is due to the easy-going weakness of Catholics. Oh! if I might ask the Divine Redeemer as the prophet Zachary did in spirit: WHAT ARE THOSE WOUNDS IN THE MIDST OF THY HANDS? the answer would not be doubtful: WITH THESE WAS I WOUNDED IN THE HOUSE OF THEM THAT LOVED ME. I was wounded by my friends, who did nothing to defend me, and who, on every occasion, made themselves the accomplices of my adversaries. And this approach can be levelled at the weak and timid Catholics of all countries."

This reproach applies in particular to the Catholics of America. It has truly been said that history is the greatest teacher, but apparently the study of the destruction of nation after nation in Europe has taught American Catholics nothing. There are even those Catholics, so smug in their vaunted tolerance and liberalism, who deny the existence of a concerted plot against Christian civilization. These so-called Catholics would even deny the fact that civilizations decay because the masses become impregnated with false ideas and evil philosophies. The greater the evil of the philosophies propounded the more liberal its guises. But the eternal battle for good and evil is not waged between these conflicting views but between the forces who hold them. "We Catholics," wrote the brilliant French defender of Christianity, "lose ground perhaps more on account of the truths that good men have not the courage to proclaim than because of the errors that the wicked have been cunning enough to multiply." The greatest error is the denial, not only of the cult of evil, but also of the existence of a plot against Christianity directed from a central agency. These Naturalistic Catholics, who call themselves Liberals, are in reality the 5th Column of the organized Naturalists, but they conceal their evil under the cloak of tolerance. These so-called Liberal "Catholics" are deserving of a chapter unto themselves.

LUCIFER AND HIS AGENTS

Many Catholics, in an effort to conceal their cowardice, ignorance, or in some instances evil machinations, deny not merely the aims of the organized Naturalists but even the existence of their deliberate plot against Christianity. These are the Catholics who don the garment of tolerance in order to conceal their lack of Christian virtue. Liberalism is another guise they assume to deliberately create perplexity in the minds of Catholics by confusing truth with error. The "Catholics" are far removed from the equity and prudence of the Church, warned Pope Leo XIII in his Encyclical Letter, Libertas, wherein he states:

"As to tolerance, it is surprising how far removed from the equity and prudence of the Church are those who profess what is called Liberalism. For, in allowing that boundless licence of which we have spoken, they exceed all limits and end at last by making no apparent distinction between truth and error, honesty and dishonesty. . . . IT IS CONTRARY TO REASON THAT TRUTH AND ERROR SHOULD HAVE EQUAL RIGHTS. . . . For there is a moral power which it is absurd to suppose that nature has accorded indifferently to truth and falsehood, justice and injustice."

THE ORGANIZED NATURALISTS

The tolerant and liberal Catholics are the deliberate accomplices of the organized Naturalists, i.e., Zionists, Communists, Socialists, etc. Zionism, according to Max Nordau and other International Jewish leaders, is a new name for that old thing called political Messianism. Lucifer, as the Prince of this World, is also its political Messiah and therefore the organizer of the political Messianists. Since Zionism and political Messianism are identical in concept, it naturally follows that Zionism is Lucifer's most powerful weapon in the conquest of Christian civilization. Communism, Socialism, Theosophy, Vedantism, Bahaism, etc., all are but tentacles of the evil body of political Messianism (Zionism). This entire cult of evil recognizes no other

God but Lucifer and whatever its professed religion or purpose, it is in reality the doctrine of Naturalism organized on a world-wide scale and dedicated to the destruction of all Christian society. In his work, The Kingship of Christ, Cardinal Pie described the doctrine of Naturalism in the following words:

"Naturalism is more than a heresy; it is pure undiluted anti-Christianism. Heresy denies one or more dogmas; Naturalism denies that there are any dogmas or that there can be any. Heresy alters more or less what God has revealed; Naturalism denies the very existence of revelation. It follows that the inevitable law and the obstinate passion of the Naturalists is to dethrone Our Lord Jesus Christ and to drive Him from the world. This will be the task of Antichrist and it is Satan's supreme ambition. . . ."

"The great obstacle to the salvation of men of our day, as the Vatican Council pointed out in the first Constitution on Doctrine, what hurls more people into hell nowadays than any other epoch, is Rationalism or Naturalism. . . . Naturalism strives with all its might to exclude Our Lord Jesus Christ, Our One Master and Saviour, from the minds of men as well as from the daily lives and habits of peoples, in order to set up the reign of Reason or of Nature. Now, wherever the breath of Naturalism has passed, the very source of Christian life is dried up. Naturalism means complete sterility in regard to salvation and eternal life."

THE PLAN

No man, gifted with normal intelligence and right morals, can profess ignorance of the existence of the organized Naturalists or the universal scope of their power any more than he can deny the fact that these forces are carrying out their plan to destroy Christianity according to a prearranged program. There are too many incontrovertible proofs to support this charge. Zionism is anti-Christian by the very fact that it is political Messianism and is preparing the way for the universal reign of the political Messiah, i.e., Antichrist. This plan is outlined in THE PROTOCOLS OF THE ELDERS OF ZION, but whether this political document is referred to as THE PROTOCOLS OF THE ELDERS OR THE WISE MEN OF ZION OR THE BASLE PROGRAMME is as irrelevant as the origin of the plan itself. Whatever the origin, the fact remains that the plan for destruction of all existing order has been in existence since 1897.

It was in August of 1897 that International Jewry held its first public convention in Basle, Switzerland. But the World Jewish Congress was pledged to THE BASLE PROGRAMME as early as 1884, when International Jewry convened in Kattowitz, a city situated on the border of Russia. It was at the 1897 Congress, however, that the plans were drawn up for a future world war to secure Palestine for Jewry, under the Presidency of Theodore Herzl. While International Zionism might attempt to deny the authenticity of THE BASLE PROGRAMME OR THE PROTOCOLS OF THE ELDERS OF ZION, they cannot deny the realization of their plans which have been carried out, according to detail and exact schedule. Their political program, drawn up more than a half century ago, will be brought to fruition in 1952 unless an aroused Christian world throws off the yoke of the organized Naturalists and returns to the Doctrine of Life as taught by Christ on Calvary. The wood of the Cross became not only the Throne of the True Messiah and only Saviour of the world, but the Chair of the Doctrine of Life as well. It is to this Seat of Learning that the world must return in order to survive.

While the Devil's Agents deny the authenticity of THE BASLE PROGRAMME or denounce THE PROTOCOLS OF THE ELDERS OF ZION as a forgery, it is interesting to note that the Sovereign Pontiff of the Church, the brilliant Leo XIII, in an Apostolic Letter reviewing his Pontificate, warned the world of the purpose and program of the organized Naturalists, drawn up by a central agency, for the promotion of world upheaval. To quote the language of his Holiness:

"For the simultaneousness of the assaults in the persecutions so suddenly burst upon us in these later times, like a storm from a clear sky, that is to say, without any cause proportionate to the effect; the uniformity of means employed to inaugurate this persecution, namely, the press, public assemblies, theatrical productions; the employment in every country of the same arms, to wit, calumny and public uprisings, all this betrays clearly the identity of purpose and a programme drawn up by one and the same central direction. All this is only a simple episode of a prearranged plan carried out on a constantly widening field to multiply the ruins of which we speak."

(Apostolic Letter, March 19, 1902.)

The entire purpose of this program drawn up by the Devil's Agents under Lucifer's supervision is the establishment of the kingdom of the Antichrist. The Devil himself is the chief architect in building his own throne. The present world conflict, then, is not a struggle for political power but a religious war. The forces of truth and error are now recruiting for the final engagement between the followers of Christ and the Antichrist. Foremost of the signs of the approaching reign of this terrible monster of impiety is the universality of false doctrines. The apostasy has resulted in a world-wide defection of the faith and moral degeneration. The present Administration in Washington is sufficient proof that "the abomination of desolation," spoken of by Daniel the prophet, is already here. Many of the prophecies preceding the Christian era refer to the age when the Gentile (Christian) nations would deny the very existence of God. The recent Beatus of the Church, Pope Pius X, who died in 1914, spoke of this apostasy as the harbinger of the Antichrist in his first Encyclical Letter issued October 4, 1903, as follows:

"We consider it impossible that you are ignorant concerning facts as regards the wicked struggle which is being waged against God in these, our own times. Indeed, the heathens are raging against their Creator and the nations meditate vain things. The common cry of the enemies of God is almost nothing but: 'Depart from us!' Among most men the reverence due to Almighty God has disappeared and in private and public daily life the name of God is not pronounced with reverence. Man is even attempting with all force and cunning possible to blot out even the remembrance and idea of God. When, therefore, we consider the present state of things, we must actually fear that this iniquity of men is already the beginning and the preparation for the Evil One, who will appear towards the end of the world and that the 'son of perdition,' of whom the Apostle speaks, has already come on the earth!"

Who are the principal accomplices of this evil "Son of Perdition" preparing the way for the Antichrist? No, not those who, from earliest infancy, have been taught to reject and despise their Divine Saviour and seek the political Messiah who will build them a paradise here on earth. Nor the Orientals, who are also preparing for the advent of the political Messiah and the "New Dispensation" or kingdom of God on earth. These are to be pitied for their blindness, for they have never known Jesus Christ. But those who, having known Him, deliberately reject or oppose Him by joining forces with the organized Naturalists, these are the greatest criminals, for they are the accomplices of the Antichrist. The cowardly and lukewarm Christians who are neither with Him nor against Him, Christ will contemptuously vomit from Him because of their timid indifference. As for the apostates, we can only tremble in fear. Pope Leo XIII described these monsters of apostasy in his Encyclical Letter, Tametsi, as follows:

"Never to have known Jesus Christ in any way is the greatest of misfortunes, but it involves no perversity or ingratitude. But after having known, to reject or forget Him, IS SUCH A HORRIBLE AND MAD CRIME AS TO BE SCARCELY CREDIBLE."

THE LIGHT THAT FAILED

There would have been no excuse for anyone, least of all Catholics, to become lost in the whirlpool of modern confusion if the Christian world had heeded the teachings of the SYLLABUS OF MODERN ERRORS published by Pope Pius IX. Pope Leo XIII, the successor of Pope Pius IX, referred Christians to the SYLLABUS of his predecessor, as a light that they might follow to steer them from shipwreck in the sea of error. Leo's own words, quoted from his Encyclical Letter, Immortale Dei (1885), are as follows:

" . . . Pius IX branded publicly many false opinions which were gaining ground and afterwards ordered them to be condensed in summary form, in order that, in this sea of error, Catholics might have a light that they might safely follow."

The SYLLABUS was published on December 8, 1864, and together with his Encyclical Letter, Quanta Cura, Pius IX sent it to all the Bishops of the world. No Catholic, therefore, can be excused for joining forces with the organized Naturalists, whether they be Zionists, Communists, Socialists, Vedantas (oh, yes, there are Catholics who have joined this vile Oriental cult, just as there are Catholics who became members of the infamous Ordo Templi Orientis). Neither can

Catholics, hierarchy, clergy or laity participate in such organizations as the National Conference of Christians and Jews or any other Inter-Faith cult which places Catholicism, established by Christ, on the same level as man-made sects. All of these Inter-Faith, Clerico-Liberal, Biblical and other Naturalistic societies are absolutely banned by the SYLLABUS under pain of excommunication.

The publication of the SYLLABUS occurred just a few days after Pope Pius IX's suggestion of an Ecumenical Council. "Between this publication and the convocation of the Vatican Council," wrote Rev. Alzog in his Universal Church History, "men of judgment and ability have professed to find a close and even necessary connection. The Sovereign Pontiff, in his decision on matters of faith discussed in the SYLLABUS, did not promulgate any new doctrines but merely set old truths, by which Catholics are bound, in a clearer light, thus guarding them against increasing errors. This Profession of Faith was sworn to by Pope Pius IX and every one of the Fathers of the Vatican Council during the Second Public Session of the Council, January 6th, 1870. The SYLLABUS, concerning matters of Faith, was a decision given by the Pope speaking as the Universal Pastor, that is, Ex Cathedra, and all Catholics are bound, under pain of excommunication, to adhere to its teachings. What is meant by an infallible decision? Archbishop Sheehan in his Apologetics and Catholic Doctrine, Vol. 1, p. 179, tells us that:

"The Pope possesses a twofold teaching authority, viz., supreme or infallible and ordinary. The Pope teaches the Church with his ordinary authority, either directly or through one of the Roman Congregations, that is, through one of his committees of learned men who assist him in his work. The Congregation of the Holy Office or Inquisition is concerned with purity of doctrine; the Biblical Commission with questions connected with the Sacred Scriptures. When he employs his ordinary authority, he is not infallible and does not, of course, bind us to an assent of Faith."

Is the SYLLABUS an infallible decision which all Catholics are bound to accept? Yes, it is! In the language of the author of the article on the SYLLABUS in the Catholic Encyclopedia, we are told:

"Even should the condemnation of many propositions not possess the unchangeableness peculiar to infallible decisions, nevertheless the binding force of the condemnation in regard to all the propositions is beyond doubt. For the SYLLABUS, as appears from the official communication of Cardinal Antonelli (accompanying it, when it was sent to the Bishops) is a decision given by the Pope, speaking as teacher and judge to Catholics the world over. All Catholics, therefore, are bound to accept the SYLLABUS; exteriorly they may neither in word nor in writing oppose its contents; they must also assent to it interiorly."

THE SYLLABUS OF MODERN ERRORS

For immediate purposes and the sake of brevity, I shall comment on Sections I to IV of the SYLLABUS: Section I condemns the doctrines of NATURALISM, PANTHEISM and EXTREME RATIONALISM. These Naturalistic teachings identify God with nature and place man on the same level as God. In identifying God with nature, He is as subject to change as man's whims or the political weather vane dictates, as is now so commonly witnessed.

Pantheism, the doctrine of the deification of man, teaches that God evolves in every man as well as the world, hence, spirit is identified with matter, God is also identified as matter and man evolving in God and God in man, both are viewed as matter. The natural conclusion of this paganistic doctrine is atheistic Communism and Zionism which holds that all men, being matter, are the natural property of the State. This blasphemous triumvirate of Pantheism, Naturalism and Extreme Rationalism also hold that necessity is identified with liberty, truth with falsehood, good with evil, justice with injustice, leading to every sort of social disorder and moral disintegration. Any effect of God or action of His upon men and the world is denied. Human reason, these egotistical fiends argue, is the sole judge of morality, not God, and they appoint themselves the sole arbiters of good or evil.

All truths of religion, they insist, originated in the minds of men and not with God. Hence they argue that human reason alone is the sovereign guide men should follow to attain all knowledge and truth. The Faith of Jesus Christ, they maintain, is opposed to human reason; therefore, Divine Revelation is harmful to man's human progress and material welfare. Christ is a myth, so they insist, and the books of the Old and New Testament are mythological inventions of men. The prophecies and miracles of Holy Scripture are poetical fictions and the Divine Mysteries of the Christian Faith are merely the investigations of the philosophers. These are also part of this doctrine of the organized Pantheistic triumvirate of apostasy. All of their philosophies are condemned by Pope Pius IX in the SYLLABUS as explained in his Allocution, Maxima Quidem, June 9, 1862; the Encyclical Letter, Qui Pluribus, Nov. 9, 1846; Singulari Quidem, Mar. 17, 1856.

Section II of the SYLLABUS proscribes the teachings of the Moderate Rationalists which are the natural consequences of the doctrines described in Section I. The entire series of errors, more restrained and less blasphemous than those of the Extreme Rationalists, are summarily condemned, for they spring from the same folly of identifying human reason with and placing it on the same level with God. The Moderates teach that the self-constituted divinity of man must be permitted to distinguish between good and evil and not the Church's Divinely appointed mission to safeguard truth. They demand also that the decrees of the Church and her attachment to the old-fashioned teachings of St. Thomas Aquinas and the scholastics be done away with because they hinder man's modern progress. These teachings are condemned in the Letters: Gravissimas Inter, Dec. 11, 1862; Tuas Libenter, Dec. 21, 1863; Eximiam Tuam, June 15, 1857; Dolore Haud Mediocri, Apr. 30, 1860.

Section III condemns the evils of INDIFFERENCE, LATITUDINARIANISM, and the modern doctrine of so-called tolerance and liberalism. Particularly forbidden are those doctrines which teach that every man is free to embrace and profess that religion which, guided by the light of his own human reason, he considers to be true. The Apostolic Letter, Multiplices Inter, June 10, 1851, and the Allocution, Maxima Quidem, June 9, 1862, discusses the condemnation of these false doctrines, including the teaching that men can find the way of eternal salvation and reach eternal salvation in any form of religious worship. Also condemned is the teaching that those religious sects which are the products of man's own reason are merely different forms of the same True Christian religion established by Christ. Also forbidden is the practice of putting the religion established by Christ on the same level as those doctrines which are the products of man's own disordered mind. These condemnations are explained in the Allocution, Singulari Quidem, Dec. 9, 1854; Encyclical Letters, Quanto Conficiamur Moerore, Aug. 10, 1863; Nocitis et Nobiscum, Dec. 8, 1849.

Section IV of the SYLLABUS condemns SOCIALISM, COMMUNISM, SECRET SOCIETIES, BIBLICAL SOCIETIES, CLERICO-LIBERAL SOCIETIES, Inter-Faith organizations, such as the National Conference of Christians and Jews, Brotherhood organizations and all such groups which were designed by the organized Naturalists to bring about the destruction of Christian civilization by spreading indifference and Atheism. These pestiferous organizations are condemned in the severest and gravest possible language and all Catholics, no exceptions are made, all Catholics are absolutely forbidden to have any association with these organizations in any manner whatsoever. All of these organizations are nurseries for man's deification of himself and the Clerico-Liberal, Inter-Faith and Brotherhood societies, no less than the Communists, Socialists and Nihilistic Secret Societies favor the propagation of this doctrine, since they put man-made religions on the same platform or dinner table level as the religion instituted by Christ. These condemnations are given in the Allocutions, Quibus Quantisque, Apr. 20, 1849; Singulari Quidem, Dec. 9, 1854; Encyclical Letters, Nocitis et Nobiscum, Dec. 8, 1849; Quanto Conficiamur Moerore, Aug. 10, 1863.

ALL FOLLOWERS OF JESUS CHRIST ARE ANTI-SEMETIC

"To Christians of all denominations Jesus is the symbol of all that is pure, sacred, and lovely. To Jews from the fourth century, Jesus became the symbol of anti-Semetism, of libel, of cruelty, of violent death."

Prayer

"PRAY AS IF EVERYTHING DEPENDED ON GOD: WORK AS IF EVERYTHING DEPENDED ON YOU."

St. Ignatius Loyola

The power of prayer is beyond our imagination. We should bury our pride and pray to the Blessed Mother of God that she will give us understanding, judgment and courage.

DRAFT MACARTHUR FOR PRESIDENT AND TAFT FOR VICE PRESIDENT

The Fort Worth Press staff writer, Norton McGiffin, reports that Republican National Committee-man Henry Zweifel favors Senator Taft for President and General Douglas MacArthur for Vice President, and advocates an uninstructed delegation from Texas to the National Republican convention.

I am an ardent "States' Righter" and a former Democrat, but see no hope in the Democratic party and therefore wish to assist in the promotion of a strong, effective Republican party in Texas. If the Republicans adopt the Zweifel program I will vote the Republican ticket, and hope to be able to take an active part in the campaign. I am pleased to say that I have practically recovered from the recent attack of illness which was so widely publicized.

I prefer General MacArthur for President and Senator Taft for Vice President. I believe that God has ordained General MacArthur to save our government from Socialism and Communism and a dictatorship, and that General MacArthur recognizes the call and will accept the Republican nomination for President, and that Senator Taft will accept the nomination for Vice President—he has, in fact, indicated that he will do so.

Such a ticket will win in Texas and sweep the nation. I have spent my entire life of 86 years in Texas and I think I know the people of Texas better than does Senator Duff of Pennsylvania, who recently campaigned in the interest of the Socialist candidate for President, General Eisenhower.

There is no demand in Texas for Eisenhower, as Senator Duff claims. The Socialists, Communists and Zionists are for him vociferously, and the pro-Zionist press are advertising him extensively, but fortunately they do not represent the people of Texas. We are a Christian people who are devoted to our system of government. Senator Taft would carry Texas overwhelmingly on a platform that stands four-square for the restoration of constitutional government, against Eisenhower or any other Socialist.
